

RAPHAEL
H.E. MR. FARID

CHAIRMAN AND GENERAL MANAGER

Banque Libano-Française SAL

Education:

Holder of degrees in law (French law degree and Lebanese law degree) from Saint Joseph University, Beirut, Lebanon.

Professional Experience:

Backed by more than 50 years of experience in the banking industry, Farid Raphaël is the founder, Chairman and General Manager of Banque Libano-Française SAL, a leading Lebanese Bank established in Lebanon since 1967.

Mr. Raphaël is also Board member of BLF's French banking subsidiary Banque SBA based in Paris (France) with a branch in Cyprus and a financial subsidiary in Geneva, and Vice-Chairman of Bank Al-Sharq SA, the Group's newly established bank in Syria.

Farid Raphaël also acts as Board member of different private companies of which Hôtel Dieu de France Hospital. He held several public functions as Minister of Finance, Minister of Justice and Minister of Telecommunications. He also was previously President of the Lebanese Banks' Association.

Medals of honor:

- 1984: Medal of French Honor Legion as a "Knight"
- 1999: Medal of French Honor Legion as an "Officer"